

I-485 Permanent Resent Pending Decision for-F Students

When you file the-#85 application to adjust your immigration status from immigrant to immigrant tatus, you are considered to be pending permanent resider (PRor I-485 Pending) Once the-#85 is filed, it may take months or years before you receive the adjudication from USCIS (Please consult a licensignation attorney). As long as you comply with F1 visa regulations, your SEVIS record will not be terminated. During the that you have an 485 application pending with USCIS, you may choose to maintain you take to root, as shown in the two options low:

I-485 PendingOption 1: Maintaining F1 Status

Although maintaining student status is no longer required oynowe file the immigrant application and receive the I-485 receipt notice (PR pending), there is a practical benefit to maintaining your legislatus in the event that the adjudication result is not approved. If you choose this option, regast continue to maintain your FI status by enrolling fullime, working only with the required authorization, and following all other regulations required of those who hold-IF visas.

I-485 Pendin@ption 2: Not Maintaining F1 Status

If you have filed the immigrant application and received t465 receipt (PR pending) and you choose NOT to maintain your F1 status, our office must terminate your SEVIS record. We will not terminate yourstatus if you are maintaining your status. When we terminate your SEVIS record, you are completely counting on your F1 to be approved. You have no backup plan.

NOTEAs soon as you receive your permanent residency card (green card) or ha561astamp in your passport, pleaseemail these documents to oia@louisiana.eathd the Registrar's Officeu(r@louisiana.ed).so that your immigration status can be updated. Please note that if you are employed by the University, you will also need to provid these documents tournanresources@louisiana.edu

Option 1: Maintaining F1 Status I have filed the-#85 application and I voluntarily choose to comply with the F-1 regulations and maintain my legal fistatus. This will provide me with a "backup plan" if my PR application or petition fails. I will stilbe considered as an-F student and my SEVIS record will remain ACTIVE. I can switch to Option 2 if I decide to not adhere to the federal immigration regulations fdr students.

Option 2 Not Maintaining F1 Status I have filed the-#85 application. I choose to abandon my status and will not continue to follow regulations for-F students. I understand that my1Frecord in SEVIS will be terminated
